CARTE POSTALE

CHENEY COURT, WINCHESTER. Winchester is one of the great historical cities of England, and can look back on over a thousand years of civic history. It was the ancient capital of England and the commercial rival of London. Famous for its Cathedral and College, it abounds in mediæval buildings beautiful and picturesque. Cheyney Court, as it was once called, marked the site of a time-honoured oak (Fr. Chene-Oak), under which justice was administered in a dim and distant past.
